AND FOREIGN BANKING CORPORATIONS.

APPROVED BY THE STATE BOARD OF PUBLICATION.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

OFFICE OF THE BANK COMMISSIONER,
STATE HOUSE, January 20, 1915.

To the General Court of Massachusetts.

The annual report of this department is herewith submitted under the requirements of section 15, chapter 590, Acts of 1908, and exhibits the condition of savings banks, co-operative banks, credit unions and savings and loan associations as disclosed by their annual returns of October 31, 1914, and also of trust companies at the date of each of the five calls during the past year.

The complete report, as heretofore, consists of two parts: Part I. relating to savings banks and trust companies, and Part II. relating to co-operative banks, credit unions, and savings and loan associations. The customary consolidated statements covering transactions of savings banks and trust companies follow this report.

GENERAL STATEMENT.

The aggregate assets of the various companies or individuals under the supervision of the department, compiled from their last reports, are as follows:—

² Five of these are inactive.

These 586 institutions and agents under the supervision of the Bank Commissioner have over one and one-half billions of dollars entrusted to their care. In view of the number of institutions for conserving the savings of our people, and the enormous aggregate of their assets, it is the policy of this department to follow the recent practice in the administration of both the national banks and similar institutions in some of our sister States, of requiring the officers who have the management of our banks and the investment of their funds to use reasonable diligence and obey the law in carrying out the trusts which they have taken upon themselves. Such officers are practically trustees of the people's money, and should be held accountable as such.

SAVINGS BANKS.

This department, in connection with and in addition to the usual examination, has audited the books and accounts of 52 savings banks, which by their auditing committee availed themselves of the provisions of chapter 629 of the Acts of 1912.

Owing to the European war the stock markets of the world were closed for about four months, and as it was impossible to get precise and equitable quotations of market prices of the bonds held by savings banks and institutions for savings as investments, such estimated market price is omitted in the statements of condition in this report.

The Winthrop Savings Bank of Winthrop was granted a certificate to organize and began business April 4, 1914.

Revaluations of Mortgage Loans.

In connection with the examinations of the savings banks made during the year, particular attention has been paid to the valuations of the mortgaged properties held by the banks; also to the quinquennial revaluation required by section 68, clause 1, chapter 590, Acts of 1908.

The information obtained at the time of these examinations has been reported to the boards of investment of the banks, and a circular has been sent to all the banks referring to the matter, with the result that payments on account of principal or repairs have been made when deemed advisable, thus improving the quality of the investments in real estate loans.

Lafayette Savings Bank.

This bank commenced business January 1, 1914, at 452 Boylston Street, Boston, and on September 15, 1914, under the provisions of chapter 399, Acts of 1910, the Bank Commissioner took possession of its affairs, which are now in the process of liquidation. The first and only examination of the bank by this department disclosed the fact that its affairs were in such condition that it would be impossible for the bank to continue business. The deposits received by the bank had not been invested in accordance with the requirements of section 68, chapter 590, Acts of 1908, and various sums of money had been misappropriated. The Bank Commissioner, under the provisions of the statute, has taken action in behalf of the depositors to recover the funds for their benefit.

Wales Savings Bank.

The affairs of this bank, which is in voluntary liquidation, remain practically unchanged since the time of the last annual report, the depositors at that time having received the full amount of their deposits.

The liquidating committee of the bank expects to realize upon the remaining assets, and a settlement should be made during the ensuing year, when a final dividend may be paid to the depositors.

TRUST COMPANIES.

Following is a list of trust companies which have commenced business during the year 1914:—

Beverly Trust Company.
Charles River Trust Company.
Old South Trust Company.
Tremont Trust Company.

Certificates have been issued by the Board of Bank Incorporation that public convenience and advantage would be promoted by the establishment of the following trust companies, but these companies had not commenced business at the close of the year:—

Commercial Trust Company.
First Ward Trust Company of Boston.
Hanover Trust Company.¹
Prudential Trust Company.
Satucket Trust Company.

Permission has been granted by the same Board to the following trust companies to establish branch offices:—

Fidelity Trust Company.
Fitchburg Safe Deposit and Trust Company.²
International Trust Company.
Massachusetts Trust Company.
Naumkeag Trust Company.
Needham Trust Company.
Newtonville Trust Company.

This department, in connection with and in addition to the usual examination of trust companies, has audited the books and accounts of 24 companies, which by their stockholders' examining committee availed themselves of the provisions of chapter 409 of the Acts of 1913.

The Old Colony Trust Company and the Commonwealth Trust Company have taken advantage of chapter 504 of the Acts of 1914, and taken over the assets and assumed the liabilities of the Bay State Trust Company and Hamilton Trust Company, respectively, and with the permission of the Bank Commissioner are maintaining as branch offices the offices occupied by the merged companies.

Taunton Safe Deposit and Trust Company.

The receiver of the Taunton Safe Deposit and Trust Company has paid a final dividend of 10 per cent. to the depositors, making total dividends of 85 per cent., and has filed his final report with the Supreme Judicial Court.

CO-OPERATIVE BANKS.

The Avon Co-operative Bank, Forest Hills Co-operative Bank, Meeting House Hill Co-operative Bank and Watch City Co-operative Bank were chartered and commenced business during the year. The Central Co-operative Bank and Chair-Town Co-operative Bank were also chartered, and it is expected that they will soon be in operation.

² Name since changed to Fitchburg Bank and Trust Company.

The verification of all new real estate loans and all share loans held by the co-operative banks, through personal correspondence with the borrower, is being continued after each examination.

EXAMINATION OF THE AFFAIRS OF THE TREASURER AND RECEIVER-GENERAL OF THE COMMONWEALTH.

For some years past this department, in addition to its prescribed duties, has, at the request of the Governor and Council, made the examination required by section 68 of chapter 6 of the Revised Laws. The report of this examination was submitted for the close of business August 15. An examination was also made during the month of January for the joint committee on ways and means, under the provisions of chapter 414 of the Acts of 1908.

SAVINGS BANK LIFE INSURANCE.

The sixth full financial year of Savings Bank Life Insurance ended October 31, 1914. This report includes the annual statement for the year of the four banks which have undertaken the business of life insurance under chapter 561 of the Acts of 1907.

The four banks are the Whitman Savings Bank of Whitman, the People's Savings Bank of Brockton, the Berkshire County Savings Bank of Pittsfield and the City Savings Bank of Pittsfield.

These banks issued during the year ending October 31, 1914, 2,408 policies, representing $783,962 of insurance. There were also 41 old policies revived, amounting to $14,447 of insurance. The net gain is 1,385 policies for $415,972 of insurance. There were in force in all four banks on October 31, 1914, 9,439 policies for $3,566,778 insurance, with annuities representing annual payments of $27,645.

These banks are prohibited from employing solicitors or house-to-house collectors of premiums. The largest single portion of the expense to the policyholder is thus removed. The savings bank life insurance plan appeals to the people on the basis of thrift, and especially to the savings bank depositors. It is recognized that some inexpensive substitute must be provided for the soliciting agent, consequently the banks are permitted to establish agencies throughout the State in mills, shops and factories, and public places, including other savings banks and trust companies. The mechanism whereby these agencies serve as feeders to the insurance banks is simple: an employer becomes an agency for the insurance banks by signing agency agreements in which he agrees to collect the premiums from his employees on their policies and remit them to the banks once a month. The employer appoints an agency secretary, usually the paymaster, and the agency is entitled to 2 per cent. of the collections so made. Most of the employers waive this collection fee in order that they may say to their employees that the service is rendered absolutely without compensation to the employer, while other employers take the collection fee and give it as additional compensation to the agency secretary. The employee usually signs an authorization which is handed to the paymaster and authorizes him to deduct the amount of the premium from the pay envelope when the premium comes due. Thus the evil of lapsing policies, which was ever present in the private Industrial companies and formed a large part of the cause of the high cost of insurance, is mitigated in the banks; and the initiative to lapse the policy is placed on the employee, because his authorization acts until he revokes it, whereas in the companies the policyholder must take the initiative to pay his premium; if he does not, his policy lapses. Premiums are also paid direct to the banks or to a public agency.

There are to-day throughout the State about 215 agencies in mills, shops and factories; there are 24 public agencies in savings banks, 7 in trust companies, and 20 other public agencies. The public agencies in savings banks and trust companies are:—

Attleboro Trust Company.
Beverly Savings Bank.
Bridgewater Savings Bank.
Cambridgeport Savings Bank.
Cape Ann Savings Bank, Gloucester.

Chapter 246 of the Acts of 1914 amended section 15 of chapter 561 of the Acts of 1907 by requiring the mortality experience of all savings and insurance banks to be averaged and unified, so that it makes no difference in what bank a death occurs, it is distributed over all banks. This applies only to the mortality experience and is in the interests of greater security; in all other respects the insurance departments are separate in their operation. The investments are in the same kind of securities as those of the savings banks.

The system being entirely mutual, dividends are paid to policyholders every year; and the law also provides that when the surplus of a bank reaches $20,000, or 10 per cent. of the policy reserves, whichever is greater, the balance shall go back to the policyholders in the form of dividends. During the past year the Whitman Savings Bank and the People's Savings Bank thus reached the stage when it was necessary to return large extra dividends in addition to the regular dividends, under this provision.

The banks issue two forms of policies, monthly premium and annual premium policies.

The net cost of the monthly premium policies is about 35 per cent. less than similar insurance taken in a private company on the weekly premium plan, notwithstanding the companies have reduced rates and made other betterments since Savings Bank Life Insurance was established.

The annual premium policies have been issued for $500 only, but $2,000 insurance could be obtained by applying to four banks on one medical examination if all policies were taken within a month. At the writing of this report the Legislature has enacted a bill which will permit the banks to issue as much as $1,000 insurance on one life, and it is now possible to get a maximum of $4,000 insurance in the four banks.

SCHOOL SAVINGS BANKS.

The law relative to the collection of savings from school children has now been in force for three years. On October 31, 1914, there were 58 savings banks receiving deposits of this nature.

The reports of these banks show that deposits are being received from 464 schools located in 58 cities or towns, the system being operated in 3,282 schoolrooms.

The total number of enrolled scholars in the 464 schools on October 31, 1914, was 142,458, and 67,520 of these were depositors in the school savings banks. The amount of deposits received from this source, and other information showing the results being obtained, are given below: —

CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS.

The sixth examination of applicants for certificates as public accountants was held October 14, 15, 16 and 17, 1914; 83 applicants were examined, of whom 16 appeared to have the necessary qualifications to be registered as public accountants. On December 31, 1914, there were 119 public accountants holding certificates of registration under the laws of this Commonwealth.

BOARD OF BANK INCORPORATION.

This Board, consisting of the Bank Commissioner, Treasurer and Receiver-General and the Commissioner of Corporations, is constituted by chapter 590, Acts of 1908, to pass upon all applications for the establishment of domestic banking corporations.

During the year 1914 the Board has held 36 meetings and heard 63 petitions, 53 of which were granted, 6 refused and 4 held in abeyance. These hearings have been upon 2 applications for new savings banks, 9 applications for new trust companies, 9 applications for new co-operative banks, and 23 applications for new credit unions, besides additional hearings held for the purpose of determining changes of name, operating trust departments and establishing branch offices.

CREDIT UNIONS.

The annual reports of 50 credit unions have been received, showing assets of $279,358.23, an increase of $94,206.66 since the previous report of this department. A total membership is shown of 6,149, an increase of 1,572. The total receipts during the year were $536,929.09, an increase of $142,088.20, and the total loans made were $371,353.47, an increase of $83,591.92. Total disbursements as dividends to shareholders were $8,335.80, and the total sum paid as interest on savings accounts was $1,803.

The following is a list of the credit unions which have commenced business since the date of the last annual report:—

Charters have been granted to the following credit unions which have not as yet commenced business:—

Regnillas Credit Union,	Boston.
Suffolk Credit Union,	Boston.
Zion Credit Union,	Worcester.

The Quincy Credit Union of Quincy, the Hebrew Credit Union of Boston and the Chelsea Progressive Credit Union of Chelsea dissolved in the manner provided in the statutes. During the year the Bank Commissioner, in accordance with the provisions of chapter 399, Acts of 1910, took possession of the property and business of the Lynn United Hebrew Credit Union and the Peoples Credit Union of Lynn, and their affairs are now in process of liquidation. The Bank Commissioner has appointed an agent to assist in the liquidation of those two credit unions who reports that he is unable to collect any appreciable part of the amount due from borrowers; that these borrowers and their endorsers had at the time of the making of the loan no ability to pay other than that furnished by the fact that they were working; that a business depression has been enough to make the notes of many borrowers worthless, and in nearly every case the endorser was of no financial responsibility.

The object of the credit unions was stated by the Legislature to be for the purpose of promoting thrift among its members, and it is understood that it was to enable worthy borrowers to avoid the exorbitant rates of interest that they in the past had been compelled to pay.

It seems proper to call attention to the danger of the class of loans which are made, according to the statute, on notes without collateral, where the maker and endorser as a rule have no financial standing, and where the repayment of the loan is dependent upon the integrity of the borrower and his continuance at work or the prosperity of his business. It seems especially proper to call attention to the difficulty which this department meets in the matter, because it has been found practically impossible to ascertain, either by correspondence or otherwise, the responsibility and financial standing of the parties whose names appear upon the notes of these unions.

It has been the observation and conclusion of this department that the intention of the Legislature in promoting thrift among the members of such unions has not been obtained in the majority of cases; instead, it has enabled less thrifty people to make easy loans where those in charge of the credit unions have not the experience and judgment to loan wisely.

The Legislature of 1914 passed an act, chapter 437, Acts of 1914, entitled, "An Act to facilitate rural credits and to enlarge the powers of credit unions," but up to the time that this report went to press no credit union had taken advantage of the act.

PERSONS, PARTNERSHIPS, ASSOCIATIONS OR CORPORATIONS SUBJECT
TO THE PROVISIONS OF CHAPTER 428, ACTS OF 1905, AND ACTS
IN AMENDMENT THEREOF AND IN ADDITION THERETO.

No changes have been made since the last annual report in the statutes which apply to the persons, etc., subject to the provisions of the above acts. During the last fiscal year there was collected in license fees and paid into the treasury of the Commonwealth the sum of $3,200. On October 31, 1914, 88 of these persons, etc., were under the supervision of this department, as compared with 87 on October 31, 1913; of this number 36 received deposits of money for safekeeping, the total deposits on October 31, 1914, amounting to $1,255,434, a decrease during the year of $306,442, the number of depositors being 14,415, a decrease of 27. The total amount of money sent for deposit in the Italian Postal Savings Bank during the year was $547,686, a decrease of $557,858, or more than 50 per cent. The total amount of money received for transmission abroad during the same period was $7,234,988, a decrease of $1,976,401.

There are no statutes defining the investments of the money deposited for safekeeping with these bankers. The depositors are protected by a bond conditioned upon the faithful holding and repayment of the money deposited. If, however, losses arise from unwise investments and loans to an extent which would require a recovery on the bond, such a course might lead to delay or litigation, to the serious distress of those who intrust their money to these bankers. As the investments by savings banks, co-operative banks and trust companies are prescribed by law, it would seem that there should be a statute fixing the kind of investments which may be made by those who are licensed by the Commonwealth to receive deposits of money for safekeeping. Recommendations to this end have been made by the Bank Commissioner in previous years, but no legislation has resulted.

The following table is compiled from the last five annual reports made to this department, and shows the amount of money forwarded to various foreign countries:—

RECOMMENDATIONS.

I hereby make the following recommendations for consideration and action by the General Court during the ensuing year:—

1. That the statute requiring an audit to be made of the affairs of certain corporations borrowing from savings banks be amended so the audit may be made both of the borrowers and endorsers at yearly intervals.

2. The statute placing a limit on deposits in savings banks was amended in 1908 and 1909 to allow labor unions and credit unions to deposit more than such limit, and the statute requiring a classification of accounts should be amended to be consistent with existing law.

3. The statute permitting a co-operative bank to receive money at other places than its regular place of business should be amended so as to allow such a bank to maintain a restricted sign for the guidance of its shareholders.

Respectfully submitted,

AUGUSTUS L. THORNDIKE,
Bank Commissioner.

LIST OF LEGAL INVESTMENTS.

The following is a list of bonds and notes which, in the opinion of this department, are now legal investments under the provisions of clauses second, third, fourth, fifth and sixth of section 68 of chapter 590, Acts of 1908. Clause second, relating to investments in public funds, has been applied only to those counties, cities, towns and districts which appear to have bonds or notes outstanding, and from which debt statements could be obtained. Clause third is the general law relating to railroad bonds. Clause fourth provides that issues which complied with the old law shall continue, under certain conditions, to be legal investments. The banks may not only continue to hold such bonds, but may invest further in them. In this list the bonds which do not comply with clauses second and third, but continue legal through clause fourth, are printed in italics and the reason in each case is explained in the footnotes. Clause fifth relates to investments in street railway bonds, and clause sixth to investments in telephone company bonds.

Investment in bonds or notes of cities, towns and districts mentioned in the list should not be made without further inquiry, as both their indebtedness and their valuations for the assessment of taxes are constantly changing.

Any person claiming a right to money deposited with the treasurer and receiver general under the provisions of sections fifty-five and fifty-six of chapter five hundred and ninety of the acts of the year nineteen hundred and eight, by a decree of the probate court, may establish his right by proper petition to the probate court in which the decree was entered. The court shall thereupon order a notice to be given by the receivers, and, upon the expiration of one year after the time of giving such notice, the receivers shall in like manner report the amounts still uncalled for. The accounts and transactions of said savings department shall be kept separate and distinct from the general business of the association or corporation.

SECTION 5. No such association or corporation shall have more than two offices or places of business in the commonwealth.

Chapter 399, Acts of 1910.

AN ACT RELATIVE TO PROCEEDINGS AGAINST AND THE LIQUIDATION OF CORPORATIONS AND INDIVIDUAL BANKERS SUBJECT TO THE SUPERVISION OF THE BANK COMMISSIONER.

SECTION 1. In this act, unless the context otherwise requires, the word "bank" means a savings bank, co-operative bank, trust company or any person, partnership, association or corporation incorporated or doing a banking business in this commonwealth which is subject to the supervision of the bank commissioner. 1912, 472.

SECTION 2. Whenever it shall appear to the bank commissioner that any bank under his supervision has violated its charter or any law of the commonwealth, or is conducting its business in an unsafe or unauthorized manner, or that its capital is impaired, or if it shall refuse to submit its books, papers and concerns to the inspection of said commissioner or of his duly authorized agents, or if any officer of such bank shall refuse to be examined upon oath by the commissioner or his deputies touching its concerns, or if it shall suspend payment of its obligations, or if from an examination or from a report provided for by law the bank commissioner shall have reason to conclude that such bank is in an unsound or unsafe condition to transact the business for which it is organized, or that it is unsafe and inexpedient for it to continue business, the bank commissioner may take possession forthwith of the property and business of such bank and may retain possession thereof until the bank shall resume business or until its affairs shall finally be liquidated as herein provided. 1912, 472.

Subject to the written approval of the bank commissioner, any bank, at a meeting specially called to consider the subject, may vote to dissolve the corporation and liquidate its affairs: provided, that such a vote is passed by at least two thirds of the trustees or shareholders in a savings bank or co-operative bank or by stockholders of a trust company representing at least two thirds of its outstanding capital stock. A committee of three trustees, shareholders or stockholders shall thereupon be elected, and, under such regulations as may be prescribed by the bank commissioner, shall liquidate the assets, and after satisfying all debts of the corporation shall distribute the remaining proceeds among those entitled thereto in proportion to their respective interests therein.

SECTION 3. Upon taking possession of the property and business of any bank, the bank commissioner shall forthwith give notice of that fact to any and all banks, trust companies, associations and individuals holding or having possession of any assets of such bank. No bank, trust company, association or individual knowing that the bank commissioner has taken such possession, or having been notified thereof as aforesaid, shall have a lien or charge for any payment, advance or clearance thereafter made, or liability thereafter incurred, against any of the assets of the bank of whose property and business the bank commissioner shall have taken possession as aforesaid. Such bank may, with the consent of the bank commissioner, resume business upon such conditions as he may approve: provided, however, that if, in his judgment, it is for the public interest so to do, he may retain in behalf of the bank the control, prosecution or defence of any undetermined suits or claims brought in behalf of or against the bank under the provisions of 1913, 177.

section five of this act during the time when the bank was in his charge, and the expense of prosecuting or defending such suits or claims shall be paid from the funds of such bank.

SECTION 4. Upon taking possession of the property and business of such bank, the bank commissioner shall have authority to collect moneys due to the bank, and to do such other acts as are necessary to conserve its assets and business, and shall proceed to liquidate its affairs as hereinafter provided. He shall collect all debts due and claims belonging to it, and upon the order or decree of the supreme judicial court, or any justice thereof, may sell or compound all bad or doubtful debts, and on like order or decree may sell all, or any part of, the real and personal property of the bank on such terms as the court shall direct; and he may, if necessary to pay the debts of any such trust company, enforce the individual liability of the stockholders.

SECTION 5. For the purpose of executing and performing the powers and duties hereby conferred upon him, the bank commissioner may, in the name of any such delinquent corporation or individual banker, prosecute and defend any and all suits and other legal proceedings and may, in the name of the delinquent corporation or individual banker, execute, acknowledge and deliver any and all deeds, assignment, releases and other instruments necessary and proper to effectuate any sale of real or personal property or any compromise authorized by the court as herein provided; and any deed or other instrument, executed pursuant to the authority hereby given, shall be valid and effectual for all purposes to the same extent as though the same had been executed by the officers of the delinquent corporation by authority of its board of directors or of its stockholders, or by the individual banker personally. In case any of the real property so sold is located in a county other than that in which the application to the court for leave to sell the same is made, the bank commissioner shall cause a certified copy of the order or decree of the court authorizing or ratifying such sale to be filed in the registry of deeds for the district in which the said real property is located.

SECTION 6. The bank commissioner may, under his hand and official seal, appoint an agent or agents to assist him in the duty of liquidation and distribution. The certificate of the appointment of such agent or agents shall be filed in the office of the bank commissioner, and a certified copy thereof shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the supreme judicial court for the county in which the principal office of such bank is located. The bank commissioner may from time to time authorize such agent or agents to perform such duties connected with said liquidation and distribution as he may deem proper. The bank commissioner may procure such expert assistance and advice as he may consider necessary in the liquidation and distribution of the assets of such bank, and he may retain such of the officers or employees of the bank as he may deem necessary. The bank commissioner shall require from a special agent and from such assistants such security for the faithful discharge of their duty as he may deem proper.

SECTION 7. Upon taking possession of the property and assets of such bank, the bank commissioner shall make an inventory of the assets of the bank in duplicate, one to be filed in the office of the bank commissioner and one in the office of the clerk of the supreme judicial court for the county in which the principal office of the bank is located.

SECTION 8. The bank commissioner shall cause to be published weekly for three consecutive months, in such newspapers as he may direct, a notice calling on all persons who may have claims against such bank to present the same to the bank commissioner and to make legal proof thereof at a place and in a time, not earlier than the last day of publication, to be therein specified. The bank commissioner shall mail a similar notice to all persons whose names appear as creditors upon the books of the bank, so far as their addresses are known. If the bank commissioner doubts the justice and validity of any claim, he may reject the same and serve notice of such objection upon the claimant either by mail or person. An affidavit of service of such notice, which shall be prima facie evidence thereof, shall be filed with the bank commissioner. An action upon the claim so rejected shall not be entertained unless brought within six months after such service. Claims presented after the expiration of the time specified in the notice to creditors shall be entitled to share in the distribution only to the extent of the assets in the hands of the bank commissioner equitably applicable thereto.

SECTION 9. Upon the expiration of the time fixed for the presentation of claims, the bank commissioner shall make in duplicate a full and complete list of the claims presented, including and specifying such claims as have been rejected by him. One of said lists shall be filed in the office of the bank commissioner and the other in the office of the clerk of the supreme judicial court for the county in which the principal office of the bank is located. Thereafter the bank commissioner shall make and file in said offices, at least fifteen days before every application to the court for leave to declare a dividend, a supplementary list of the claims presented since the last preceding list was filed, including and specifying such claims as have been rejected by him, and, in any event, he shall make and file the said list at least once in every six months after the filing of the original list, so long as he shall remain in possession of the property and business of the bank. Said inventory and said list shall be open to inspection at all reasonable times.

SECTION 10. The compensation of the special agents, counsel, employees and assistants, and all expenses of supervision and liquidation shall be fixed by the bank commissioner, subject to the approval of the supreme judicial court for the county in which the principal office of such bank is located, on notice to such bank and, upon the certificate of the bank commissioner, shall be paid out of the funds of the bank in his hands.

SECTION 11. At any time after the expiration of the date fixed for the presentation of claims the supreme judicial court, upon the application of the bank commissioner, may authorize him to declare out of the funds remaining in his hands, after the payment of expenses, one or more dividends, and, after the expiration of one year from the first publication of notice to creditors, the bank commissioner may declare a final dividend, such dividends to be paid to such persons, in such amounts, and upon such notice as may be directed by the supreme judicial court for the county in which the principal office of such bank was located, or as may be directed by a justice of said court. Objections to any claim not rejected by the bank commissioner may be made by any person interested by filing a copy of such objections with the bank commissioner, who shall present the same to the supreme judicial court at the time of the next application for leave to declare a dividend. The court to which such application is made shall thereupon dispose of said objections, or may refer them to a master for that purpose, and should the objections to any claim be sustained by the court or by the master no dividend thereon shall be paid by the bank commissioner until the claimant shall have established his claim by the judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction. The court may make proper provision for unproved or unclaimed deposits.

SECTION 12. Should any corporation or individual banker, at the time when the bank commissioner takes possession of the property and business of such corporation or banker, have in its or his possession for safe keeping and storage, any jewelry, plate, money, securities, valuable papers or other valuable personal property, or should it or he have rented any box, safes, or safe deposit boxes, or any part thereof, for the storage of property of any kind, the bank commissioner may at any time after taking possession as aforesaid cause to be mailed to the person claiming to be, or appearing upon the books of the corporation or banker to be, the owner of such property, or to the person in whose name the safe, vault, or box stands, a notice in writing in a securely closed postpaid, registered letter, directed to such person at his postoffice address as recorded upon the books of the corporation or banker, notifying such person to remove, within a period fixed by said notice and not less than sixty days from the date thereof, all such personal property; and upon the date fixed by said notice, the contract if any, between such persons and the corporation or banker for the storage of said property, or for the use of said safe, vault or box, shall cease and determine, and the amount of the unearned rent or charges, if any, paid by such person shall become a debt of the corporation or banker to such person. If the property be not removed within the time fixed by the notice, the bank commissioner may make such disposition of said property as the supreme judicial court, upon application thereto, may direct; and thereupon the bank commissioner may cause any safe, vault or box to be opened in his presence, or in the presence of one of his special agents and of a notary public not an officer or in the employ of the corporation or banker, or of the bank commissioner, and the contents thereof, if any, to be sealed up by such notary public in a package upon which the notary public shall distinctly mark the name and address of the person in whose name such safe, vault or box stands upon the books of the corporation or banker, and shall attach thereto a list and description of the property therein. The package so sealed and addressed, together with the list and description may be kept by the bank commissioner in one of the general safes for boxes of the corporation or banker until delivered to the person whose name it bears, or may otherwise be disposed of as directed by the court.

SECTION 13. Whenever any corporation or banker of whose property and business the bank commissioner has taken possession as aforesaid deems itself or himself aggrieved thereby, it or he may, at any time within ten days after such taking possession, apply to the supreme judicial court for the county in which the principal office of the corporation or banker is located to enjoin further proceedings; and said court, after citing the bank commissioner to show cause why further proceedings should not be enjoined, and after hearing the allegations and proofs of the parties and determining the facts, may, upon the merits, dismiss such application or may enjoin the bank commissioner from further proceedings and direct him to surrender the said business and property to the corporation or banker.

SECTION 14. Whenever the bank commissioner shall have paid to each and every depositor and creditor of such corporation, not including stockholders, whose claim or claims as such creditor or depositor shall have been duly proved and allowed, the full amount of such claim, and shall have made proper provision for unclaimed and unpaid deposits or dividends, and shall have paid all the expenses of the liquidation, he shall call a meeting of the stockholders of the corporation by mailing notice thereof, not less than thirty days prior to the date of the meeting, to each stockholder of record whose address is known, and also by publishing notice of the meeting once a week for four successive weeks in some newspaper of general circulation published in the county where the principal office of the corporation is located, the first publication to be not less than thirty days before the date appointed for the meeting. At such meeting the stockholders shall determine whether the bank commissioner shall be continued as liquidator and shall wind up the affairs of the corporation, or whether an agent or agents shall be elected for that purpose, and in so determining the stockholders shall vote by ballot, in person or by proxy, each share of stock entitling the holder to one vote; and a majority of the stock shall be necessary for the determination. In case it is determined to continue the liquidation under the bank commissioner, he shall complete the liquidation and, after paying the expenses thereof, he shall distribute the proceeds remaining among the stockholders in proportion to their several holdings of stock, in such manner and upon such notice as may be directed by the supreme judicial court. In case it is determined to appoint an agent or agents to liquidate, the stockholders shall thereupon select such agent or agents by ballot, a majority of the stock present and voting, in person or by proxy, being necessary to a choice. Such agent or agents shall execute and file with the bank commissioner a bond to the treasurer and receiver general of the commonwealth in such amount, with such sureties and in such form as shall be approved by the bank commissioner, conditioned for the faithful performance of all the duties of his or their trust, and thereupon the bank commissioner shall transfer and deliver to such agent or agents all undivided, uncollected or other assets of the corporation then remaining in his hands. Upon such transfer and delivery, the bank commissioner shall be discharged from any and all further liability to such corporation. Said agent or agents shall convert into cash the assets coming into his or their possession and shall account for and make distribution of the property of the corporation as provided in the case of distribution by the bank commissioner, except that the expenses thereof shall be subject to the direction and control of the supreme judicial court. In case of the death, removal or refusal to act of any such agent or agents the stockholders, on the like notice, to be given by the bank commissioner upon proof of such death, removal or refusal to act being filed with him, and by the like vote hereinbefore provided, may elect a successor, who shall have the same powers and be subject to the same liabilities and duties as the agent originally elected.

SECTION 15. Dividends and unclaimed deposits remaining unpaid in the possession of the bank commissioner for six months after the order for final distribution shall be deposited by him in one or more national banks, savings banks or trust companies to the credit of the bank commissioner in his official capacity, in trust for the several depositors with, and creditors of, the liquidated corporation from which they were received, according to the several interests of the persons entitled thereto. The bank commissioner shall state annually in his report to the general court the names of corporations, including individual bankers, so taken possession of and liquidated and the amounts of unclaimed and unpaid deposits or dividends with respect to every such corporation and banker. The bank commissioner may pay over the money so held by him to the persons respectively entitled thereto upon being furnished satisfactory evidence of their right to the same. In cases of doubt or of conflicting claims he may require an order of the supreme judicial court authorizing and directing the payment thereof. He may apply the interest earned by the moneys so held or deposited by him toward defraying the expenses incurred in the payment and distribution of such unclaimed deposits or dividends to the depositors and creditors entitled to receive the same, and he shall include in his annual report to the general court a statement of the interest earned by such unclaimed dividends and deposits.

SECTION 16. The supreme judicial court, or any justice thereof, shall have jurisdiction in equity to enforce the provisions of this act and to act upon all applications and in all proceedings thereunder.

SECTION 17. Sections nine, ten and eleven of chapter five hundred and ninety of the acts of the year nineteen hundred and eight are hereby repealed.

SECTION 18. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

Section 11, Chapter 622, Acts of 1910.

The supreme judicial court or any justice thereof sitting in equity may, upon petition of a savings bank or the trustees of a savings bank approved by the bank commissioner, approve or order a reduction of the deposit account of each depositor therein, whenever the value of its assets is less than the total amount of its deposits so as to divide the loss equitably among said depositors. If thereafter the bank shall realize from said assets a greater sum than was fixed by said order of reduction, such excess shall be divided among the depositors whose accounts have been reduced, but to the extent of such reduction only.

For the purposes of this act the term "bank" shall include any person or association of persons carrying on the business of banking, whether incorporated or not.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

Chapter 618, Acts of 1911.

AN ACT RELATIVE TO THE TAXATION OF SAVINGS BANKS WHICH ARE RESTRAINED FROM DOING BUSINESS.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

Chapter 189, Acts of 1912.

AN ACT TO EXEMPT FROM TAXATION SHARES OF STOCK OF MASSACHUSETTS TRUST COMPANIES OWNED BY SAVINGS BANKS.

third line, and by inserting after the word "Massachusetts", in the twenty-ninth line, the words:— and so much of said deposits as is invested in shares of stock of trust companies organized under the laws of this commonwealth, — so as to read as follows:— Section 21. Every savings bank and institution for savings shall pay to the treasurer and receiver general, on account of its depositors, an annual tax of one half of one per cent on the amount of its deposits, one half thereof to be assessed by the tax commissioner upon the average amount of such deposits for the six months preceding the first day of May and one half to be so assessed upon the average amount of such deposits for the six months preceding the first day of November. Such tax shall be paid semi-annually on or before the twenty-fifth day of May and of November, each payment to consist of the amount of the tax as determined by the last preceding assessment; but so much of said deposits as is invested in real estate for banking purposes or in loans secured by mortgages of taxable real estate, and, for the period limited in clause Tenth of section sixty-eight of chapter five hundred and ninety of the acts of the year nineteen hundred and eight, so much of said deposits as is invested in real estate, the title to which has been acquired by the completion of foreclosure, or by purchase, pursuant to said section, so much of said deposits as is invested in bonds of the commonwealth of Massachusetts issued after July first, nineteen hundred and six, so much of said deposits as is invested in bonds, notes and certificates of indebtedness of any county, fire district, water supply district, city or town in the commonwealth which may be issued on or after the first day of May in the year nineteen hundred and eight, stating upon their face that they are exempt from taxation in Massachusetts, and so much of said deposits as is invested in shares of stock of trust companies organized under the laws of this commonwealth, shall be exempt from taxation under the provisions of this section.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

AN ACT RELATIVE TO THE INCORPORATION AND TO THE RESERVE FUNDS OF TRUST COMPANIES.

SECTION 1. Fifteen or more persons who associate themselves by an agreement in writing for the purpose of forming a trust company may, upon compliance with the provisions of this act, become a corporation, with all the powers and privileges and subject to all the duties, restrictions and liabilities set forth in all general laws now or hereafter in force relating to such corporations.

SECTION 2. Said agreements shall set forth that the subscribers thereto associate themselves with the intention of forming a corporation, and shall specifically state:—

Second, The purpose for which it is formed.

Each associate shall subscribe to the articles his name, residence, post office address and the number of shares of stock which he agrees to take.

SECTION 3. A notice of the intention of the subscribers to form such a trust company shall be given to the board of commissioners of savings banks. A notice in such form as said board shall approve shall be published at least once a week, for three successive weeks, in one or more newspapers designated by said board, and published in the city or town in which it is proposed to establish the company. Such notice shall specify the names of the proposed incorporators, the name of the corporation and the location of the same, as set forth in the above mentioned agreement of association. Within thirty days after the first publication of said notice the subscribers to said agreement shall apply to said board for a certificate that public convenience and advantage will be promoted by the establishment of such trust company. If the board refuses to issue such certificate, no further proceedings shall be had, but the application may be renewed after one year from the date of such refusal, without further notice or publication unless the board shall order the same.

[The powers and duties conferred upon the board of commissioners of savings banks by the provisions of the above section are now vested in the board of bank incorporation. See section 4 of chapter 590, Acts of 1908, printed on page lxxvii.]

SECTION 4. The first meeting of the subscribers to the agreement of association shall be called by a notice signed either by that subscriber to the agreement who is designated therein for the purpose, or by a majority of the subscribers; and such notice shall state the time, place and purposes of the meeting. A copy of the notice shall, seven days at least before the day appointed for the meeting, be given to each subscriber or left at his residence or usual place of business, or deposited in the post office, postage prepaid, and addressed to him at his residence or usual place of business, and another copy thereof and an affidavit of one of the signers that the notice has been duly served shall be recorded with the records of the corporation. If all the incorporators shall in writing, endorsed upon the agreement of association, waive such notice and fix the time and place of the meeting, no notice shall be required. The subscribers to the agreement of association shall hold the franchise until the organization has been completed. At such first meeting, or at any adjournment thereof, the incorporators shall organize by the choice by ballot of a temporary clerk, by the adoption of by-laws and by the election in such manner as the by-laws may determine, of directors, a president, a clerk, and such other officers as the by-laws may prescribe. All the officers so elected shall be sworn to the faithful performance of their duties. One of such certificates shall be submitted to the board of commissioners of savings banks, and the other, together with the records of the proposed corporation, to the commissioner of corporations, who shall examine the same, and who may require such amendment thereof or such additional information as he may consider necessary. If he finds that the articles conform to the provisions of the preceding sections relative to the organization of the corporation and that the provisions of section three have been complied with, he shall so certify and endorse his approval thereon. Thereupon the articles shall be filed in the office of the secretary of the commonwealth, who, upon payment of a fee equal to one fortieth of one per cent of the capital stock of said corporation as set forth in said articles, shall cause the same, with the endorsement thereon, to be recorded, and shall thereupon issue a certificate of incorporation in the following form:—

Not less than one half of the reserve of such trust company acting as reserve agent shall consist of lawful money of the United States, gold certificates, silver certificates or notes and bills issued by any lawfully organized national banking association, and the remainder of such reserve may consist of balances, payable on demand, due from any trust company in the city of Boston authorized to act as reserve agent as herein provided, or from any national banking association doing business either in this commonwealth or in the cities of New York, Philadelphia, Chicago or Albany.

If the reserve of any trust company is at any time less than the amount which it is required to keep on hand, such trust company shall not make any new loans or investments until the required proportion between the aggregate amount of its deposits and reserve shall be restored. The bank commissioner may notify such trust company to make good such reserve, and if such trust company shall fail for sixty days thereafter so to make good such reserve, he may apply to a justice of the supreme judicial court to appoint one or more receivers to take possession of the property and effects of said trust company and to close up its business, subject to such directions as may from time to time be prescribed by the court or by a justice thereof. If the reserve of any trust company which has been authorized to act as reserve agent is at any time less than the amount which it is required to keep on hand, the bank commissioner may notify such trust company to make good such reserve, and if such trust company shall fail for ten days thereafter so to make good such reserve, said commissioner may revoke the authority of such trust company to act as a reserve agent.

The commissioner or his deputy or examiners shall have authority to examine the accounts, books and papers of any corporation, person, partnership or association which does a banking business or makes a business of receiving money on deposit, or which has the words "bank", "banking" or "trust" in the name under which its business is conducted, in order to ascertain whether such corporation, person, partnership or association has violated or is violating any provision of section sixteen; and any corporation, person, partnership or association violating any provision of section sixteen shall forfeit to the commonwealth one hundred dollars a day for every day or part thereof during which such violation continues. Any violation of the provisions of section sixteen shall forthwith be reported by the commissioner to the attorney-general. The said forfeiture may be recovered by an information or other appropriate proceeding brought in the supreme judicial court or superior court in the name of the attorney-general. Upon such information or other proceeding the court may issue an injunction restraining such corporation, person, partnership or association from further prosecution of its business within the commonwealth during the pendency of such proceeding or for all time, and may make such other order or decree as equity and justice may require.
